II.1.4) Short description

The vision for this service is to create a mental health pathway that enables people that live with Mental Health conditions and complex needs the good health and wellbeing necessary to live a meaningful life across Cambridgeshire, ensuring it reaches into areas where social and health inequalities impact on lives and the community. This will be achieved through working collaboratively, creatively and adopting a person-centred approach, focussing on a person's strengths and what is important to them. This is encapsulated in the following principles:

Enabling people to live in their own home with the support they need

Supporting people in a recovery-focussed way that works for them

Supporting the development of strong, connected communities

Being agents of change and focussing the service in line with demand

Recognising the strengths of individuals, families and local networks and building upon these

Working with partners and across organisations to focus on the person's needs and outcomes

Enabling choice and control for the person in decisions which are important to them

Developing a skilled and confident workforce

Risk sharing approach across agencies and with individuals to enable the best outcome

Using technology where appropriate to facilitate independence

For more details, see tender documents.
