Description

My Way Forward is a pilot programme to develop new ways of working and pathways that create improved outcomes for young people in person-centred, ambitious and creative ways.

Provision, support and activities could include:

- Academic learning and vocational learning and skills
- Support focussed on someone becoming a volunteer, an intern or an employee (including self-employed as a CME).
- Life skills that enable young people to live well and as independently as possible in their community, knowing how to stay healthy and safe, e.g. online safety, and with friends.

- Opportunities for hobbies and spending time doing the things someone is passionate about.
 - Sports, exercise and spending time outside.
