II.1.4) Short description

Suffolk County Council are in the process of engaging with the detox and rehab sector ahead of a forthcoming tender process. The current arrangements for Suffolk residents who require access to inpatient detoxification and residential rehabilitation facilities is due to cease on 31st March 2022. To inform the new arrangements, Public Health Suffolk are keen to engage with the sector to help shape a new service specification. Details of the tender process will be published later in the year and will be advertised on www.suffolksourcing.uk in order to help us shape a specification, we value input from as many organisations as possible. Our survey can be found at: <https://www.healthysuffolk.org.uk/advice-services/adults/drugs-and-alcohol/d-and-a-professionals/detox-and-rehabilitation> The deadline for completing the survey is 31st July 2021.
