II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The London Borough of Bromley is seeking a contractor to deliver annual reviews and updates of Asbestos Management Plans for 140 operational properties within the council's estate for a fixed price, and will provide a schedule of rates for consultancy services that may be instructed on an ad hoc basis. These consultancy services include but are not limited to professional advice, surveys, sampling, inspection, monitoring and analysis.

These services are currently provided under a Total Facilities Management contract. The Council has decided to transform its property function and move away from the total facilities management approach and is seeking a provider to deliver asbestos services only for its operational estate under this contract. The Council's vision is to directly appoint a specialist and responsive supply chain for whom the Council is a priority customer.
