II.1.4) Short description

We, Greater Manchester Combined Authority (GMCA) are seeking proposals from suitably qualified suppliers for the Provision of Occupational Health, Counselling, Physiotherapy, Employee Assistance Programme, Eye Care Services and a system/portal within which health information may be stored.

In the first instance the provision will be utilised by GMCA, but is open for utilisation by GMP.

Any use by GMP will be subject to agreement by the contractor and dependent on location.

GMFRS current arrangements for Occupational Health, Counselling, Physiotherapy and EAP services are provided by two separate external suppliers and GMFRS are looking to improve efficiency and a more collaborative approach and end to end service. While increasing efficiency, and ensuring support for our staff, we will be looking for innovative ways to achieve this and examples of collaborative working, or a shared service approach will be key.

We endeavour to work in partnership with our suppliers to maintain and develop the following aspects of employee health and wellbeing:

- Health Promotion

- Maintaining and Developing a Healthy Workforce
- Support to remain in work – early intervention
- Support to return to work – back to work

The intended duration of the contract is 36 months with a provision to extend for 2 x 12 month periods.
