Confidentiality Notice and Acknowledgement Protocol

By registering for this market engagement event, you acknowledge that the information shared through this market engagement is provided in confidence and must not be disclosed outside your organisation. Please ensure all attendees from your organisation are aware of and comply with this requirement.

Following registration, you will receive a message via the Jaggaer portal asking you to confirm this acknowledgement. You must respond in confirmation to this message before an event invite will be issued.

Participants who have registered an expression of interest will receive a link to join the session via Microsoft Teams.

If you do not receive the invite at least 24hrs before the event, please also email SWS.COMMERCIAL@education.gov.uk to ensure you receive joining instructions in time.

The event will help attendees to:

- Gain a better understanding of deliverables and assurance requirements
- Gain a better understanding of Cabinet Office requirements around Modern Slavery and the planned Social Value criteria
- Gain a better understanding of fee mechanisms and expectations around delivery timelines
- Feed back around the feasibility of the requirements
- Discuss constraints and pressures that may impact supply chain capacity or capability to deliver the PFR requirements

We would like to invite organisations who have experience in delivering PFR within schools including grey, green and blue solutions to mitigate all types of flood risk, as well as those with experience in:

- Design and Optioneering of flood resilience solutions
- Construction and Installation of Property Flood Resilience Measures
- Project Management of construction projects

We are aiming to develop the PFR market and are actively encouraging engagement from SME organisations either directly or through subcontracting arrangements as part of the procurement process.

The final scope of the DfE's requirements have not yet been confirmed. If any procurement activity does arise, the requirements will be refined pending the results of market research. If you have any questions about suitability for the event, please contact SWS.COMMERCIAL@education.gov.uk
