II.1.4) Short description

Westminster City Council and the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea are embarking on the recommissioning of the Speech & Language Therapy Education service (age 4/5 - 19+).

Working in close partnership with North West London Integrated Care Board as commissioners of the 0-5 service, we are committed to building excellent whole-system pathways to support children at the non-statutory stages (early intervention), and to providing high-quality therapy to those with Education, Health and Care Plans.

The contract will consist of a two part specification for services:

Part 1 – the statutory service and the core universal and targeted offer

Part 2 – an extended, strengthened delivery model for the targeted offer subject to availability of funding

Part 1 will be expected to go live from the contract start date.

Part 2 may be implemented at a later stage (subject to funding) at the sole discretion of the bi-Borough with a 3 month notice period.
