II.1.4) Short description

The Council is looking to appoint a single provider for delivery of its Young People's Substance Misuse Treatment Service. The vision for this service is for a dynamic, responsive service with a strong presence in the community that supports young people and can

with partners towards achieving the national drug strategy ambition of achieving a generational shift in the demand for drugs.

The Provider should be flexible and ready to work in partnership with a range of stakeholders.

Services will be delivered in settings suitable for children and young people. The Provider will design and deliver an innovative, fit for purpose, young people friendly service with the following key service elements:

Prevention

Engagement

Treatment

Digital offer

Training
