II.1.4) Short description

OS have a mature online presence, with our e-commerce store being rebuilt on the BigCommerce platform in September 2020. We are looking for a supplier to work with us to support, maintain and develop the site, IT associated services (see scope) and deliver on the OS Consumer business ambitions; to improve our e-commerce offering and support the overall vision for the OS consumer of "helping more people to get outside more often". The OS Store sells physical and digital products; however, growth of 3rd party products has an ever-increasing focus on physical items. Currently, the OS proposition to the market relies on offers/price to compete and requires development to create an offering [service, product range and site experience] that presents an alternative USP not centred on price. We are migrating from the map store and its familiar audience to a broader B2C retail environment with a wider product set, therefore increasing the use of third-party products. This combined with the
