Westminster Accommodation Based Support Young Persons Pathway PRJ_30096

Westminster City Council are recommissioning their supported accommodation services targeted at young people aged 16-25, and are seeking a range of Providers to deliver accommodation-based support services within a multi lot structure who can demonstrate a strong record of accomplishment. The pathway provision will enable young people to develop and gain the necessary skills to live independently including education, training and employment and an emphasis on good health outcomes. The commissioned Young Persons Pathway services will form an important part of the Westminster Housing Homelessness and Rough Sleeping strategy 2025-2030. The Procurement is a one stage light touch process with open tender principles in accordance with Regulation 76 of the PCR.
