Brief Description of Requirement

This tender will appoint a supplier to implement a research outcomes data collection system to ensure UKRI is able to continue to collect outputs, outcomes and impact data from its award holders. This includes:

- the ingestion of relevant data from UKRI (for example, but not limited to information on awards, collaborating organisations, and research team contact details).
- collecting data from awardees and their teams on a set of questions provided by UKRI.
- automatic data collection from third party organisations (for example but not limited to data linked to persistent identifiers and automated outputs such as publications).
- validate and quality assure the final data set.
- the delivery of the final dataset to UKRI through an automated channel (for example such as an API).

This needs to be supported by a range of structures and services to underpin the general process. These include process governance, stakeholder engagement, data information and governance, and contract management and support.
