II.1.4) Short description

Hampshire County Council (HCC) Adults' Health and Care would like to invite care providers who have an interest in delivering Care and Support services in Extra Care Housing for older people to a market engagement event to find out more about our ambitious programme for care contracts.

The event will take place on Monday 4th April 2022, 2-4pm on Microsoft Teams.

Extra Care Housing provides the opportunity for people to live in independent accommodation in their communities with care provision onsite 24/7 to provide planned and emergency care.

HCC is preparing to tender contracts for 18 existing Extra Care Schemes and two new build schemes. This event will provide insight into our model, objectives and strategic direction. It will also include information on the tendering process and timeline.
