This procurement will identify a provider of a bespoke and supportive liaison service for those bereaved or affected by suicide, in North West London.

The aims of this service are to:

- Help navigate and support residents in NW London bereaved by suicide along their entire journey.
- Make initial contact with those bereaved within 72 hours of a referral.
- Provide emotional and practical support for individuals e.g. with inquests, liaising with coroners, funeral arrangements and rights and legal processes.
- Liaise with Mental Health Trusts in regards to patients known to services to facilitate consistent care, as required.
- Navigate and refer to, other local and national support services.
- Provide contact and/or support for the longer term, as required, including offering support to those who have been bereaved by suicide in the past.
- Build capacity in other organisations to support those bereaved by suicide (e.g. raising awareness, seeding borough based peer support groups, working in education settings).
- Offer inclusive support to communities who may require a different approach to suicide bereavement, for example: children and young people, wider family and friends, people from BAME communities, LGBTQ+ groups, witnesses of a suicide, and those with mental or physical health needs.
