II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The supplier has already delivered a culture programme across Magnox, and the business now needs to continue the culture work to date with senior leaders and next level leaders from Dounreay, as well as some Magnox leaders not captured during the first sessions. Strong relationships have been built with the supplier and with the executive and senior leadership team. The aim is to build common leadership language and develop capability to create a high performing culture. This helps us transform and supports the delivery of the new brand and TOM. It also helps embed our new values, our 10-year strategy and helps to bring in 7 new AGR's.

Section IV. Procedure

IV.1) Description

IV.1.1) Type of procedure

Award of a contract without prior publication of a call for competition in the cases listed below

- The procurement falls outside the scope of application of the regulations

Explanation:

£154k has already been invested to deliver the culture programme to the executive team and next level leaders. It is key to continue this work and maintain momentum to reinforce and embed to realise the value. Work done to date includes diagnosing and defining the current and future state as well as beginning the shift in thinking and behaviours. This initial phase of the work (referred to as phase 1) should have been complete by now, the additional workshops are mop ups for those that previously didn't attend and a sessions to include Dounreay in the programme. In essence the programme is mid-flight and it would be challenging to bring in a new provider at this stage.
