Description

Following procurement procedure due to THE value, a quotation process was followed (invited three companies to bid who had relative crematorium experience) however only one managed to submit a completed return, by the deadline.

Following the initial assessment, the company are compliant and hold the relevant amount of experience for the required study. The company seem to have significant local, and national experience, in this field.

The work is urgent, and there is a tight timetable, which the company have confirmed that they can deliver on.
