II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Residential care provides accommodation alongside care and support which is person centre-centred and strengths-based. Residential Care Services should support people to have independence, choice, and control over their life, in accordance with their care and support plan. Residential Care Services must be registered with the Care Quality Commission. Residential Care Services will operate in identified locations, for 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and 365-days per year, including weekends and public holidays. Service Users will meet the Authorities' eligibility criteria, in that each Service User will have identified care and support needs within the eligibility criteria defined in the Care Act 2014.

II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Outreach Services are intended for adults with learning disabilities and/or autism who are either living in their own homes or living with family or carers. Outreach Services are designed to support individuals to maintain and develop maximum levels of independence within their accommodation and in the community. The support varies in its intensity and duration, and providers should be proactive in identifying when hours or an entire service are no longer required by the Service User or their family.
