II.1.4) Short description

The East of England Service NHS Trust (“the Authority”) covers the six counties which make up the East of England – Bedfordshire, Cambridgeshire, Essex, Hertfordshire, Norfolk and Suffolk and provides a range of services, but is best known for the 999-emergency service. Our dedicated and skilled staff work 365 days a year, 24 hours a day to make sure patients receive the best possible care.

Our diverse area is spread over about 7,500 square miles and contains a mix of rural, coastal and urban areas – from Watford to Wisbech and Cromer to Canvey Island. Our services are tailored to meet the needs of each community’s differing environmental and medical needs.

The Authority employs more than 5,000 staff and 1,000 volunteers to deal with 1,384,547 emergency calls every year. Staff and volunteers are trained and experienced in caring for patients in a variety of situations, ranging from life-threatening illness and injury to less serious situations such as falls in the home or patients with minor injuries.

In addition, the Authority handles more than one million non-emergency patient journeys to and from routine hospital appointments. Further information regarding the Authority can be obtained from www.eastamb.nhs.uk.

This is a procurement to establish a Dynamic Purchasing System (DPS) of multiple categories and suppliers to provide a range of Learning & Training Services to the Authority.

EEAST are looking for providers to be appointed onto a Dynamic Purchasing System (DPS) for the provision of the following training solutions:

Health and Safety

Providers should ideally be able to supply a comprehensive range of training solutions that fall within this category including (but not limited to) courses such as:

- NEBOSH General Certificate
- NEBOSH Diploma
- Emergency First Aid at Work
- First Aid at Work

It is not essential that providers can offer every training course mentioned within this non-exhaustive list.

Suppliers must also be able to provide services that include:

- The ability to conduct training needs analysis on behalf of EEAST
- The ability to build bespoke solutions based on training needs analysis for EEAST
- The ability to deliver face to face, across the entire Eastern region, alongside virtual coaching, where required.

During the invitation to tender (ITT) the customer will give an indication of which training courses will be required together with full details of their requirements.

Providers who have been awarded onto this category will be able to opt-out of any further competition opportunity if they are unable to meet the customers full requirements and/or specification

II.2.5) Award criteria

Price is not the only award criterion and all criteria are stated only in the procurement documents
