Description

This notice is to inform the market of the outcome of the tender process of finding a Training Provider for Rent Smart Wales.

The training provider must deliver classroom-based training to landlords and agents across the whole of Wales that meets the requirements for a licence ('complete' licensing training). There must also be the opportunity for the training to be delivered in a virtual classroom environment and in rare circumstances in a home setting for people with additional needs. The trainer must:- Be available to deliver the training during weekdays, weekends and evenings depending on demand.- Take all required paperwork to a classroom venue so that each delegate has a copy of the presentation, a test and a feedback form.- Be able to provide classroom and home-based training across the whole of Wales.- Deliver the course content agreed with Rent Smart Wales- Provide handouts, made available in both English and Welsh depending on the delegates' requirements. Handouts must be presented to landlords and agents to further aid home learning. An electronic version can be provided if requested.- Provide additional information to delegates such as where to download relevant additional information.- Provide each classroom delegate with a multiple-choice test paper (unless the course is a CPD course that does not need an assessment) and ensure it is completed in fair conditions, whilst also providing the necessary support to people with accessibility requirements.- Be available for delegate arrival 30 minutes prior to classroom based courses commencing.
