Description

Supporting Indian States with Building Capacity to Access Finance for E-mobility Programmes is a capacity building programme to help the governments of the States of Telangana and Uttar Pradesh, and the Government of India, to build capacity to access finance for zero-emission vehicle (ZEV) road transport deployment. This programme responds to the urgent need for scalable, inclusive financing solutions to accelerate India's ZEV transition and unlock economic and environmental benefits on clean road transport.

Programme Objectives

This programme aims to:

- Build institutional capacity in participating States and the Government of India to access and deploy finance for ZEV technologies and associated assets.
 - Promote inclusive, bankable projects aligned with just transition principles.
 - Enhance coordination with international finance institutions and technical partners.
 - Generate insights to inform future ZEV financing programmes in India and other emerging markets
