II.1.4) Short description

The DfE has provided all upper-tier local authorities with grant funding to deliver free holiday activities, including healthy food and enriching activities, to all children aged 5-16 in receipt of Free School Meals who wish to engage. The grant funding covers the Easter, Summer and Winter 2021 holiday periods. This procurement applies to the provision for the Summer and Winter holiday period. Children should be offered a total of 16 hours of holiday activities per week, for the equivalent of 4x weeks in the Summer and 1x week in the Winter holiday periods, comprising the following core elements:

- Healthier eating opportunities
- Physical activity
- Engaging and enriching activities which support resilience, character and wellbeing along with their wide educational attainment
- Safety and social inclusion
- Increased knowledge of health and nutrition
- Increased engagement with school and other local services

The purpose of this exercise is to gauge the level of interest in this opportunity and to help inform and shape the final design of and strategy for this tender.

Interested providers should register on the London Tenders Portal and send a message via the message centre to express an interest or ask any further clarification questions.
