Explanation:

The Suttie Centre is the recognised training delivery unit for NHS Grampian and have ability to deliver the following course - Mental health Training to FY1 and FY2 trainees.

More information on the Suttie Centre can be found here - <https://www.abdn.ac.uk/suttie-centre/clinical-skills/simulation-training-centre.php>

NES have a requirement as part of the National Training Programme for Mental Health to deliver training locally for the foundation trainees. This covers specifically foundation trainees based within NHS Grampian.

The training is delivered by NHS Grampian staff to NHS Grampian staff at the Suttie Centre. Delivering this training locally will minimise the impact on clinical practise and reduce the travelling and associated costs of this for trainees.

The Suttie Centre work in collaboration with NHS Grampian and are the only simulation centre within this area therefore the only supplier who can deliver this requirement for NES.
