Selection Process

The tender process will include four stages as follows:

Assessment of Capability and Knowledge – this will be a written submission in response to the questions in the Technical Envelope on etenderWales.

Submission of Fees – bidders are requested to submit their proposed fees for the services using the template provided in the attachment section on etenderWales. Volume 2 Commercial Evaluation.

Presentation – following the evaluation of the written and commercial submissions, the four top scoring bidders will be asked to attend a presentation with members of DBWs Audit and Risk Committee (ARC) and senior members of the finance team. The topic of the presentation is set out in Section 12 of the ITT Volume 1. We expect senior members of the audit team to be present.

Informal meeting with key members of the finance team - the four top scoring bidders that proceed to the presentation stage will be asked to attend an informal meeting with key members of the finance team. This will not be scored as part of the bid.
