II.1.4) Short description

The City of London Corporation in collaboration with City of London Police (COLP) and HM Courts and Tribunals Services (HMCTS) has identified a need for a new combined court facility and police headquarters in the City of London. The development will also comprise a commercial office building, a public house within a repurposed listed building and extensive public realm improvements.

The “Salisbury Square Development” project will consolidate existing courts in the Square Mile into a new multi-purpose flagship centre, with a focus on fraud, economic crime and cybercrime. Consolidation of COLP’s facilities onto the Fleet Street site will provide a modern, operationally effective, resilient, and sustainable facility to allow the force to effectively fight crime in the future. The development will be situated in close proximity to many important facilities relating to the legal profession including the Royal Courts of Justice, the Old Bailey, the Inns of Court and The Rolls Building legal profession enhancing the City’s reputation and will demonstrate ongoing support for the City’s residents and business communities.
