II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The Council has a requirement to develop the provision of Enhanced Aftercare for Care

Experienced Young People. It has been identified that a number of young people who wish to leave fostering or residential care are not able to live independently due to the lack of a targeted bespoke service which provides community based supportive accommodation with a high level of support and 24/7 out of hours response.

PROPOSED MODEL

Following the Market Engagement the Council has refined its requirements and is now considering the model below:

The service will include 2 main elements:-

1. 24/7 Intensive Support

The Council will commission a model of high level support with accommodation for 16 to 21 year olds. (individual self-contained rooms and communal areas and 24/7 staffed shared houses) with support staff available 24 hours, 7 days per week.

2. Emergency Accommodation

The service will also have capacity to provide safe emergency accommodation and support that some young people will require as an emergency / short term alternative until they resolve the cause of crisis. The service model needs to take into account that Young Peoples' needs for accommodation and support can change on a daily basis and the service can respond to emergency placements.
