North West London Integrated Care Board has appointed a high quality, professional and experienced provider of project management, engagement and consultancy support, in relation to the voluntary and community sector in the Bi Borough - Central London (Westminster) and West London (RBKC).

Kensington & Chelsea Social Council will coordinate and maximise the community assets for Vibrant and Healthy Communities programme. They will work directly with, and as part of, the voluntary sector in Westminster and RBKC, building on their existing relationships, knowledge and credibility with these organisations, in order to:

- Mobilise and oversee the community solutions project from start to finish, with successful VCS grant partners;
- Develop and deliver a co-production and community engagement implementation plan;
- Develop a community intelligence model with partners across sectors;
- Work with 3ST and NWL evaluation groups to design and mobilise a model locally that enables VCS to demonstrate impact;
- Run a range of engagement events, and other relevant programmes.

Kensington & Chelsea Social Council will manage multiple programmes of work. They have strong, detailed knowledge of the local voluntary sector stakeholders and the populations they support, and will work closely with NHS and Local Authority partners, as part of the Bi-Borough Place Based Partnership.

Kensington & Chelsea Social Council:

- (a) are a Third Sector Organisation based in and operating within RBKC and Westminster boroughs.
- (b) demonstrated a proven track record of working on programmes of this type, scale and complexity, in partnership within NHS, Local Authority and Voluntary Sector settings;
- (c) Have strong, established relationships with a wide variety of 3rd sector organisations in WCC and RBKC. This includes organisations that work with children and families as well as adults, and a breadth of organisations that represent the wide range of communities living in Westminster and RBKC; and
- (d) are in a position to mobilise quickly and begin delivery immediately after contract award.
