Section VII: Changes

Section II : 1.4 - Short Description

Powys County Council is offering an exciting opportunity for suitably qualified and experienced contractors to join its established Dynamic Purchasing System (DPS) for the provision of Minor Construction Works across the County of Powys. This opportunity was originally advertised on the 10th January 2023. The DPS is now live and the Council continue to seek further expressions of interest. Contractors may apply at any time during the life of the DPS. The purpose of the DPS is to assemble and maintain an approved list of contractors for the stipulated works and to offer a more flexible and responsive procurement. All contractors who meet the selection criteria will be admitted to the DPS, and when a contract opportunity arises the Council will move straight to the mini-competition phase for that package of works.

NOTE: The authority is using eTenderwales to carry out this procurement process. To obtain further information record your interest on Sell2Wales at https://www.sell2wales.gov.wales/search/search_switch.aspx?ID=130179
