Justifications for contract modification

- Additional goods, services or works

Reason that these justifications apply

The contracting authority is modifying an existing contract for the provision of bus tickets awarded to Stagecoach.

The modification increases the maximum contract value from £280,000 to £380,000 to allow for additional volumes of the same service during the existing contract period.

No changes are being made to:

the scope of services,

the contract specification,

the pricing mechanism, or the contract duration.

The modification relates solely to an increase in spend required to meet operational demand.
