The FCDO is the government department responsible for promoting British interests overseas and supporting our citizens and businesses around the globe.

The Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office (FCDO) has estate property around the world (including the United Kingdom) and operates in over 280 different locations. The estate comprises of Embassies & High Commissions (anything from stand-alone, freehold building on secure compound, to a fitted-out leased office in a multi-occupied, high-rise building), visa offices, Residences for Heads of Post, and residential buildings for diplomats. Additionally, there are individual 'legacy' properties such as churches, cemeteries, etc.

The FCDO has a financial reporting requirement (IFRS), supported by HM Treasury Government Financial Reporting Manual, to revalue the Estate's assets to ensure they are well managed, correctly recorded and accurately valued in the annual accounts.

Thus, the Estates, Security and Network Directorate (ESND) of the FCDO, on behalf of the Secretary of State for Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Affairs, requires valuations, inspections and rent ceiling assessments of the FCDO Estate and other Government departments, if required.
