The Department for Education has provided over 1 million tutoring courses since the launch of the National Tutoring Programme in 2020. We are seeking to build on this for Academic Years 22/23 and 23/24, in response to feedback, by making the programme simpler and more flexible. To achieve this, we are seeking one or more delivery partners to deliver the following requirements:

- Quality Assurance of agencies (“Tuition Partners”) supplying contract tutors, to support schools that wish to make use of call-off tutoring by subject and locality.

- Recruitment of a new pool of tutors (known as “Academic Mentors”) to be assigned to schools.

Management of a school-facing process for assigning Academic Mentors to schools.

- Provision of a training offer, which may be delivered in-person, via e-learning or as a blended offer, for new tutors.
