II.1.4) Short description

The Knoll House project will deliver a new, modern block providing 28 apartments for people with acquired brain injuries, and for people with physical disabilities. Some units will be specifically for people aged between 18-25, and two of the new flats will be designed for bariatric clients.

The existing building will be demolished and redeveloped to provide independent living, together with associated communal space, and accommodation for staff who will provide 24-hour on-site management of the scheme.

The new scheme is expected to provide high quality accommodation for people with acquired brain injuries, and for people with physical disabilities.

While there is an expectation that people living at the scheme will build links within the community, the new building and communal space within the block will remain private, rather than it being open to the wider community.
