II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The Construction Industry Training Board (CITB) requires a web development agency to embark on a customer portals digital transformation programme. The first phase is to redesign and rebuild the existing citb.co.uk website, using the latest instance of Umbraco 14 and/or suitable DXP.

The goal is to create a user-first, modern, and accessible website that effectively serves CITB customers. This is CITB's first phase for multiple portals to be migrated to a new platform in the future and therefore the development partnership would be a longer term relationship to support with further developments and maintenance of the website.
