Description

This procurement is to secure the continuation of the provision of Oral Health Improvement Programmes in the East Riding of Yorkshire, targeted in areas of the greatest deprivation and delivered in line with local and national evidence base and guidelines. The service will include facilitation of supervised toothbrushing in targeted settings, workforce development to embed good oral health practice provision by relevant partner organisations who support vulnerable populations and promotion of local and national oral health campaign activity. The service will work collaboratively with a range of system partners to improve the oral health of the residents of the East Riding of Yorkshire, supporting established and new projects and initiatives.
