Scope

Reference

LBC/TN/633

Description

The Council has awarded the contract for the provision of the Youth Voices Service for Children and Young People to Project 4 Youth Empowerment.

Croydon's vision for children and young people is to be safe, healthy, happy, healthy and to aspire to be the best they can be. The future is theirs. This commission aims to ensure that a broader and more diverse group of children and young people are engaged, heard and involved in shaping local services and policies.

The service will engage and empower children and young people across the borough to influence decisions, policies, and services that affect their lives. It will expand existing youth voice structures and ensure inclusivity, representation, and meaningful participation.
