Scope

Description

North Lincolnshire Council, NHS Humber and North Yorkshire Integrated Care Board (ICB) North East Lincolnshire and East Riding of Yorkshire Council (the Commissioners) seek to Commission a suitably qualified provider to deliver a Joint Shared Lives Scheme (a single scheme) across all three regions to support better outcomes for people.

Our approach to integrated commissioning across health and care will maximise Place resources to best effect to meet need and achieve the best quality of provision for all residents but with a specific focus on those that are most vulnerable.

Through our integrated commissioning approach, we aim for people to;

- Live their best lives as possible
- Enjoy good health and wellbeing at any age and for their lifetime
- Live fulfilled lives in a secure place they can call home

- Have equality of opportunity to improve their health
- Play an active part in their community and enjoy purpose within their lives

Working together, the Commissioners and the Provider will identify ways in which the quality of the services can be improved and continuously developed.
