The Contracting Authority does not intend to include a sub-contract clause as part of community benefits (as per Section 25 of the Procurement Reform (Scotland) Act 2014) in this contract for the following reason:

The Form of Contract proposed includes all subcontracts as Domestic Subcontracts

Community benefits are included in this requirement. For more information see: <https://www.gov.scot/policies/public-sector-procurement/community-benefits-in-procurement/>

A summary of the expected community benefits has been provided as follows:

This is a significant project in a remote rural location and the anticipation and is that any contractor who is appointed will either have established links within the community or as part of the construction and to be cost effective will need to make use of local resources, supplies and labour. The completed building has a strong community focus.

Clause 4C1.2 in SPD:

Cnoc Soilleir are interested to know how their selected contractor would maximise the use of local workforce, contractors and supply chain, and any community benefit arising from the project. Please describe how you would achieve this and any community benefit you would provide, using examples from past projects to support your answer. Max 1000 words
