in: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/current-registered-providers-of-social-housing> The attention of the Bidders is drawn to the fact that the Council reserves the right, acting in accordance with the Regulations to review on a regular basis the Service elements to capture, for example, changes to the relevant legislation or new needs and priorities, or improvement in practices and this may result in some modification to the contract specification. The Council reserves the right to procure from the successful tenderer services consisting of the repetition of similar services entrusted to the successful tenderer in conformity with the terms of the original contract and as indicated in it, acting in accordance with Regulation 32(9) and (10). In addition, the Council reserves the right to procure additional services by the successful tenderer that have become necessary and were not included in the initial procurement, where a change of service provider (i) cannot be made for economic or technical reasons such as requirements of interchangeability or interoperability with existing equipment, services or installations procured under the initial procurement, or (ii) it would cause significant inconvenience or substantial duplication of costs for the Council authority, provided that any increase in costs to the authority as a result on them does not exceed 50% of the value of the original contract. Furthermore, the Council reserves the right to make changes to the contract to be concluded which are not "substantial" for the purposes of Regulation 72 of PCR2015, and where (i) the need for changes has been brought about by circumstances which a diligent contracting authority could not have foreseen; and (ii) the change does not alter the overall nature of the contract; and in so far that (iii) any increase in costs to the authority as a result does not exceed 50% of the value of the original contract.
