II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Our current contract for the provision of Mental Health Support and Accommodation Pathways services is due to expire on 30/07/24 and to ensure service continuity we are seeking to commission a range of multiple, suitable providers to provide Mental Health Support and Accommodation Pathway Services in the Royal Borough of Greenwich with some limited provision in the neighbouring boroughs.

The procurement will be completed via a Competitive Procedure with Negotiation and will involve an initial evaluation of Providers based upon the grounds of exclusion and the selection criteria published in the contract notice which may limit the number of suitable Providers to be invited to participate in the procedure. The Royal Borough of Greenwich will then invite its chosen economic operators (Providers) to submit an initial tender.

Royal Borough of Greenwich shall negotiate with Providers the initial and all subsequent tenders submitted, except for the final tender, to improve their content. Current service users known as 'People with lived experience' will also be involved in the evaluation process of the tenders

Providers are asked to note that the minimum requirements and the award criteria shall not be subject to negotiation.

The Financial Forecast for this procurement is awaiting confirmation from Finance.
