Description

The project team would like to receive advice in relation to the project described above. The advice should consider, and where appropriate challenge, legal advice being provided to the project and should be aimed at end delivery/implementation stage of the project but any requirement dependencies flowing from earlier phases should be clearly highlighted. The advice should be sufficient to support the following uses:

To determine the optimal service delivery model for the new provision in terms of accounting treatment, taxation and company structure/governance. This would look to maximise benefits but mitigate any risks both of which should be clearly identified. Any potential alternative service delivery models should be highlighted.

For the inclusion within project's financial modelling and therefore should provide an indication of scale and timing of areas of risk identified
