II.1.4) Short description

The NHS Long Term Plan and the NHS Community Framework for Mental Health for Adults and Older Adults sets out an ambitious scheme of work to radically transform the way in which care, support and treatment are provided. The national strategy covers the period 2021/22 – 2023/24 with a phased incremental transformation of many existing community mental health services.

Sheffield is committed to working with all stakeholders (primary/secondary care clinicians, service users, carers/families, hospitals, Sheffield City Council, voluntary/charity sector partners and local communities). At the heart of our activities are those who have or had lived experience of mental health needs. The direct lived experience of individuals who have experienced care, support and treatment are a key design principle of our transformational journey.
