II.1.4) Short description

Abri are seeking the provision of a 'Good Grub Club' service in 10 of our community investment zones (CIZs). We know that many of our residents have challenges around food security and holiday hunger, the ability to shop efficiently and healthily, and the ability to provide healthy meals for themselves and their family. This is particularly the case in our designated community investment zones. We have been providing services in some CIZs using internal resources and are now looking to widen the service into all CIZs. The service to be delivered focuses in the main on families and providing a school holidays service, but we are also looking for innovation in online services/shared resources for all those in Abri tenancies and the provision of additional term time services to children and those living alone without experience cooking for themselves. We are seeking to provide people with the resources, skills and confidence to provide high quality and nutritionally balanced meals to
