- initial launch of programme event with participants as a group
- the ongoing one-to-one sessions between the provider and the participants
- summarised group information, for key themes, to be shared with Trust leadership to support the programme

The Trust would anticipate a rate card for services, for instance, whether coaching delivered in 60/90/120 minute sessions online or face to face, optional additional workshops or debriefing sessions, and for any optional additional services such as psychometric profiling to support the programme. This rate card would be used to estimate the total engagement cost, dependent on the options selected.

Our schools are based in East London, Essex, and Northamptonshire. If face to face sessions are required, these will take place at the individual schools.
