II.1.4) Short description

Cardiff and Vale University Health Board is working to address health inequalities and dental access issues within its boundaries. It is therefore seeking to commission high quality NHS General Dental Service (GDS) to be delivered within existing GDS contracts in primary care settings for patients residing within Cardiff and the Vale of Glamorgan. Specifically in the areas of Llanishen, Penarth and Penylan following the surrender of NHS dental contracts. Contract increases would be offered under the terms of The National Health Service (General Dental Services Agreements) (Wales) Regulations 2006. Providers must therefore meet all the legal requirements of the GDS agreement and have recent demonstrable experience of successful delivery of NHS General Dental Services.
