The development of skills and independence aims to enable individuals to eventually step down into the NEL supported living service, avoiding high-cost residential and out of area placements in the future. The provision will require a holistic approach to individuals and will be supported by the Multi-Agency Planning (MAP) process to determine individual need, including support, environment, social, boundaries, further education/skills and any other.

The vision is to work closely with a specialist support provider, a housing provider, developer and CCG partners to design an effective and efficient service model and accommodation that meets the requirements within the specification.
