II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The International Strategy and Capabilities (ISC) Unit focuses on long-term multi-year transformational projects that build close working relationships with other Governments and deliver lasting, sustainable effect overseas. This includes Government to Government agreements delivering specialist capacity programmes and advisory services

The ISC unit sets the Home Office International Strategic Objectives and desired outcomes which are issued to a combination of managed service providers, training suppliers, delivery partners, consultancies and contingent labour to deliver.

Due to the specialist nature of this work, ISC requires an independent integrator function who is responsible for supporting the delivery of ISC activities in the key areas of Integration, Development & Assurance and Business Development Services. The consolidated delivery management service of these services should span, but remains independent from, frameworks and suppliers to ensure coherent and aligned delivery of ISC's strategic objectives and growth plans.
