II.1.4) Short description

The Ministry of Justice (MoJ) is seeking specialist Counter Terrorism (CT) training for Her Majesty's Prison and Probation Service (HMPPS). This notice is an early engagement notice as the MoJ would like to engage with the market first before carrying out further procurement activity for this requirement.

The MoJ requires a provider to develop a comprehensive programme of CT training for HMPPS staff, including a suite of tailored products which will be delivered either by e-learning and/or through our internal trainers. Therefore, we do not require the delivery of this training, only the creation of the course content. Please note the MoJ is seeking academic training only.

Due to the nature of this requirement a non-disclosure agreement is required. If you would like to register your interest for this requirement, please follow the following steps;

1. Email the following mailbox to receive a non-disclosure agreement (NDA)

2. Please fill out the green sections, sign and return this NDA form

3. Please register on the following portal so the MoJ can invite your organisation to view further information about this requirement;
