Section II: Object

II.1) Scope of the procurement

II.1.1) Title

Anti-Racism Framework

Reference number

C163995

II.1.2) Main CPV code

- 79414000 - Human resources management consultancy services

II.1.3) Type of contract

Services

II.1.4) Short description

NHSBT is looking for an organisation to work in partnership with to assist in the implementation of an Anti-Racism Framework. The supplier should be recognised as a specialist in this field with a depth of experience and expertise in the areas of race, equity and developing inclusion based activities across a diverse, public facing organisation. A supplier is required to assist in developing the underpinning action plans that will be required to bring the Framework to life.

The Framework has five broad pillars covering:

1. Prioritising Anti-Racism

- o Leading from the front - Addressing the diverse needs of our people and service users
- o Dedicated D&I resources - D&I professionals are seen as a key part of the organisation's leadership
- o Mission critical - Anti-racist practice is identified and considered in all work, not just in D&I plans
- o Actions not words - Commitment to real action, always doing more than the minimum to tackle inequality

2. Understanding Lived Experience

- o Listen and learn - Action to tackle discrimination is informed by meaningful engagement
- o Empowering your talent - Diverse talent is empowered, decision-making groups are intentionally made diverse
- o Cultural competency - Leaders listen to diverse experiences, and are better placed to make fair decisions
- o Data plus - Data from the whole employee lifecycle is disaggregated and informs fair

policies & practices

3. Growing Inclusive Leaders

- o Visibility matters - Our most senior leaders should come from a diverse range of backgrounds
- o Where is your talent? - Diverse talent is supported to grow by tackling structural and team-level inequalities
- o Levelling up middle leadership - All line managers are supported and trained to respond to diversity needs
- o Real opportunities - Ambitious positive action is taken, e.g., in targeted recruitment, mentoring, coaching and sponsorship

4. Acting to Tackle Inequalities

- o More than a tick box - Assurance frameworks and tools are used to prioritise, leverage, and monitor change
- o Zero tolerance matters - An active stance is taken to tackle harm, we constantly learn how to do better
- o We do this together - Partnership working is used to address the inequalities that are bigger than NHSBT
- o Fair and just - Processes and systems are fair, and are applied fairly in practice to all staff

5. Reviewing Progress Regularly

- o How are we performing – Leaders understand their key inclusion targets and their performance / accountability is taken seriously
- o What's our approach? - A clear, sustained intention, strategy, and roadmap with a range of actions and measures is in place
- o Our Voices Matter - Outcomes and feedback from affected staff are analysed and reported on to ensure meaningful change
- o Open and Transparent - Credibility around anti-racism comes from the community of staff and service users

II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The supplier must have the capacity to implement this work taking note of the following four broad activities:

1. Support to finalise the design of a suite of co-creation workshops including the preparation of an agenda and question set to be used in all workshops.
2. The requirement to run up to 25 co-creation workshops, 90 – 120 mins in length, delivered across the NHSBT national estate footprint and virtually. The expectation is that the workshops will be attended by between 25 – 40 attendees and each session will generate a report outlining how attendees would seek to implement the Framework across NHSBT directorates.
3. Participation and leadership into a working group who will take all the reports generated through the co-creation workshops and synthesise them together into a series action plans for each directorate within NHSBT that will allow them to bring the Framework to life,
4. Delivery of training to a cadre of anti-racism champions that will allow them to independently roll out the action plans across various directorates.

It is expected that the above work will take a maximum of 6 months to complete. The training under point 4 will be delivered to a maximum of 25 staff over a period not to exceed 2 days and will cover both facilitation techniques alongside race equity measures.
