II.1.4) Short description

Suffolk County Council are currently working on the redesign on Housing Related Support

(HRS) services in Suffolk. HRS services are delivered across the county and are a valuable resource to enable people aged 16+ to obtain, or regain, the necessary skills to live independently. Our expectation is that personalised outcomes are achieved within 2 years enabling people to move on into independent living. We are developing our vision and a revised model for delivering HRS services in the future and would be interested to hear your views. We are holding a Market Engagement Event on Tuesday 8th June 2021 at 3pm via Teams. To book a place please contact hrsaccess@suffolk.gov.uk and we will send you a link to the event. In addition, if you wish to talk to us informally please contact hrsaccess@suffolk.gov.uk
