Description

North Norfolk District Council (the Council) is seeking to appoint a supplier for the provision of the supply and delivery of steel sheet piles as per the specification.

Overstrand's soft cliffs are protected at their toe by a sea wall, which also acts as a walkway (promenade), on which the England Coast Path passes. This sea wall is comprised of a series of integrated concrete defences which, as beach levels have dropped, have become significantly undermined in several places. As a result of the undermining, they have sustained at least two major (reflective) fractures from top to bottom. The steel sheet piles which form the base of the seawall have become severely degraded, and in places the sea has penetrated through the corroded sheets undermining the structure above. The Council are in the process of designing a coast protection scheme at Overstrand which will include the installation of sheet piles.
