Devon County Council currently commission Children Centre Services. The contract for these services will end on 31st March 2024. Devon County Council Children's Services would like to make opportunities for pre-market engagement activity with providers available to help us to inform the design of future services to replace the above.

Going forward Devon County Council are exploring the option of a strategic partnership approach which will include working in partnership with an external organisation or number of external organisations to support in the development of a family hub model in Devon, to deliver and in some cases support and co-ordinate the development of services which will be designed and commissioned to:-

- Be delivered as part of and to support Devon's Early Help offer for children, young people and families.
- Support the local authority in meeting its duties to improve the wellbeing of children; reduce inequalities for children and promote the safety and welfare of children and young people.
- Provide support and intervention to benefit babies, children, young people, parents and/ or carers, and prospective parents and carers. Especially those experiencing multiple vulnerabilities and supporting in ways which are restorative and build on strengths they have.
- Support the development of babies, children and young people, as early as possible, working alongside other partners and professionals.
- Build networks, communication and collaborative working with a range of partners and professionals. This will be an integral part of service delivery.
- Offer a range of services to meet presenting needs supporting parents and communities.
