SCF Consult is designed to complement the established SCF Integrated Team approach to delivering Two Stage Open Book (2SOB) projects, and also to enable public authorities to gain access to high quality professional property and asset consultancy services, in a consistent manner.

The framework is intended to deliver every type of construction, property, estates and strategic property support, including but not limited to the below:

Whilst pure civil engineering projects are not a key objective of this framework civil engineering disciplines can be delivered as part of a multi-disciplinary appointment.

The framework is arranged into three lots to provide maximum flexibility to contracting authorities.

All lots on the framework cover the entire geography of the framework, and every size of commission. Consultants are expected to service the entire geography of the framework and support commissions of any size, from small high-level strategic advice commissions to long term developments, strategic partnerships, and programme delivery. It is the expectation that there will be a need for longer term co-located resources as well as shorter term resources and services provided on a more ad-hoc basis. Requirements could include co-located leaders or individuals integrated into client teams (including client in-house staff) or whole programme/project teams of individuals working remotely or coming to client offices as needed.
